

National Italian American Bar Association

Men and women sharing a common heritage in a chosen profession

Based on the Memorandum signed on October 22, 2021, as signed by NIABA and the Bars of Ancona, Bologna, Brescia, Milano,
Novara, Palermo, Parma, Ravenna Torino, Velletri and Verona
Present the Seminar

Whistleblowing – What is happening in the USA and in Italy
A comparative discussion between legal analysis and experiences on the field
July 7, 2022 – 10-12 am (EDT – East Coast) 16-18 (CEST - Italian time) via Zoom – Please register at

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcscOiqrT8uHdf2fHs-dBIXxevmKuyW823s>

Welcome/Saluti

Francis M. Donnarumma, President of NIABA

Giuseppe Busia, President of A.N.A.C. Autorità Nazionale Anticorruzione, National Anti-Corruption Authority

Francesco Greco, Vice President of CNF Consiglio Nazionale Forense, National Bar Council

Presidents and/or Spokespersons of Bars who have signed the memorandum of collaboration of Oct 22, 2021: Bars of Ancona (Mario Fusario), Bologna (Antonio Fraticelli), Brescia, Milano (Francesca Zanasi), Novara (Alessandro Cossa), Palermo (Michele Calantropo), Parma (Michele Megha), Ravenna (Fabrizio Righini), Torino (Barbara Porta), Velletri (Lia Simonetti), Verona (Davide Adami),

Michele Calantropo, President of Unione CRINT Italian

Francesca Zanasi, Attorney-at-law in Milan, Deputy Chairwoman of International Commission, Milan Bar Association

Marco De Fazi, Giampaolo Girardi, Attorneys-at-Law in Rome, Board Members of NIABA

Whistleblowing, the state of art in the US, in Italy and in the EU

Joel M. Androphy, Attorney-at-law in Texas, Colorado, New York and Washington D.C., Partner at Berg & Androphy

Lorenzo Maria Del Vecchio, Legal Ethics & Compliance Director EMEA Christian Dior Couture, Chairman MyGovernance

Pedro Pablo Barragán, Of Counsel at ISA-LEX Avocats

Conclusions

Ruggero Rubino Sammartano, Attorney-at-law in Milan and Paris, Deputy Chair of the Network Committee, International Commission, Milan Bar Association

The event will be conducted in English without simultaneous translation in other languages.

There is no fee to attend the event, but registration is required at welcom@unicrint.it.

The event is being credit with CNF for continued legal education credits